

FURTHER STUDY SCHOLARSHIP – INFORMATION SHEET

The Building and Construction Training Fund are delighted to announce a new scholarship fund to assist people who are completing further study in the building and construction sector.

The BCTF is committed to improving skills in the construction industry. By providing this scholarship fund the BCTF believe it will provide support and encouragement for people in the sector who are looking to improve their knowledge and skills. The improvement of skills of our people in the sector is just one way that we can commit to the continued improvement and professionalism of the construction industry.

The scholarship is targeted at people who have successfully completed some study and wish to complete further industry aligned education.

Scholarship Overview and Conditions:

- Scholarships are open to individuals who are completing further study having successfully completed study up to and including at least NZQA L4 (eg apprenticeships or equivalent etc)
- The course being undertaken must be aligned to the building and construction sector
- A short written update will be required from all successful applicants near the completion of the study
- The purpose of the scholarship is to provide support while studying and not necessarily course fee or course expense related
- Upon approval total scholarship (per individual) is $3000
- Upon approval of the application $2000 will be paid and a further $1000 upon successful completion of your study course.

So, if you are thinking about or currently completing further study that relates to the building and construction industry – then we invite you to complete the application form.
